

Its time the FCC let the market place decide what people decide what they want to listen to and how that content is delivered. The FCC should not censor the people.